S.J. Hart	Shifting the Mental Health Care System	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	I found this workshop to be relevant only to her & her life. The facilitator was engaging and knowledgeable about the topic I learnt nothing from her. Address sources of help for our youth whom have fire in their Brain - however these youth say "there is nothing wrong with me" yet clearly they need medical or mental help. My son was labelled as HADD, ODD, Bi-POLAR, Depression - yes I was unable for years to get help for him. I know without help his chemical would take over and we would loose him. At the age of 25 he DIED. He did abuse drugs and alcohol as a tool to help him thru BAD times. Our niece 17 years old - beats her mother up, loses control, escalates bad behaviour etc. Another niece 43 years is now living on the streets - she suffers from Bi-Polar however seems to take her medications . She too abused her mother - pushing down the stairs, throwing eggs out the patio at cars. Rolling carts down grocery isles etc, etc. Our family started taking our son to Dr. to psychologist to psyiatic Dr. etc - getting nowhere except "labelling" our son from the early age of 4. There is NOT HELP out there for families suffering these mental illness. I tried for years to ADVOCATE for my family members. Genetically these bad genes have been carried on to our family members. I had hoped I would learn something at this workshop to help my family members. I learnt nothing.	It was all about her, her family & friends. I did not learn anything about mental illness. There is "NO HELP" for our youth whom have mental illness. Jail is not the answer for our youth whom have brain damage.

Tony Vanon	Youth Transition Conferences - Youth Choice, Youth Voice	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	A lot of the conversation that took place between the "Participants" and facilitator made me loose interest because they were using jargon that I didn't understand - Remember we are not all "social workers" Overall I thought the concept was great.	I liked the material that was presented once I think that seeing a group of people participating in this process really reassures the young person that people care - It's different when you can see it visually. Great workshop Tony !!
